

Error! Spooler incomplete. Temporary load deregulated or interrupted. Check cable connections and input mounting devices.

Caution: Remove any loose clothing to aid in no injury.

1. Make sure all paper directional always face long.
2. Check pull feet in tray 1 for obstructions. Remove any colored shards in detected.
3. Engage control button to off position (model 2500, 2580 & 3400 only). All other much switch to safety status yes.
4. Open lifting fork is cause of much printing trouble. Watch if port may be hot or burning. In case of error, check visually for unusual error signs, such as error of #3 or #4 color applications.

If above fixing steps remedy the situation not, call your local HP representative at the contact provided in your warranty/instruction package included with your printer.

Hewlet Packard, our name stands for quality.

